Resources: All resources are provided within the course, other than a novel. Students will need good access to the Internet and will be required to use online tools.

Exams: All exams and quizzes require a password and are to be invigilated by a teacher at your school or an approved testing center. Exams may be rewritten if needed. Exams may cause anxiety for some students. See your teacher for study skills if necessary.

Communication: Assignments are submitted directly through your course. Constant communication with your teacher is key to success in a DL course. Phone or email or message your teacher for help whenever necessary.

Goal Setting: This course is self-paced and self-directed. Students should plan on working 5-6 hours a week on this course. It is highly recommended that the student creates a calendar of monthly, weekly and even daily goals. Contact your teacher if help is needed doing this.

Unit 1: Self-Exploration

Students will explore the role of story in personal and cultural identity, culminating with the creation of their own memoir.

Unit 2: Independent Novel Study

Students will choose a novel with First Nations authorship or themes to read and analyze.

Note: This should be done concurrently with the other units.

Unit 3: Reconciliation

Students will analyze the need for and progress toward Reconciliation and the next steps of the process and the differences that individuals and institutions can make.

Unit 3: Learning Through Story

Students will analyze traditional and modern stories and learn to synthesize text.

Unit 5: New Media

Students will explore the power of storytelling through film and spoken word, culminating with the creation of a podcast episode or documentary.
